

Terms of Service

ICT Helpdesk Management System
Effective Date: May 2026

Acceptance of Terms

By accessing and using the ICT Helpdesk Management System, you agree to comply with these Terms of Service. These terms apply to all users including complainants, employees, ICT staff, ICT secretaries, and administrators.

If you do not agree with these terms, you should discontinue the use of the system.

Purpose of the System

The ICT Helpdesk Management System is designed to:

- Manage ICT-related concerns and service requests
- Monitor ticket status and resolutions
- Improve communication between users and ICT personnel
- Track employee workloads and performance
- Provide organized documentation and reporting

The system must only be used for official and authorized purposes.

User Accounts

Account Registration

Users requesting access must:

- Use an official DepEd email account
- Provide accurate and complete information
- Submit valid account requests for approval

The administration reserves the right to approve, deny, suspend, or remove accounts when necessary.

Account Security

Users are responsible for:

- Keeping login credentials confidential
- Preventing unauthorized access to their accounts
- Logging out after each session on shared devices

Any activity performed under a user account is considered the responsibility of the account owner.

Acceptable Use

Users agree to use the system responsibly and professionally.

Users must NOT:

- Submit false or misleading tickets
- Upload malicious files, viruses, or harmful content
- Attempt unauthorized access to system data
- Interfere with system operations or security
- Use the system for personal, illegal, or non-work-related activities
- Share confidential information without authorization

Violation of these rules may result in account suspension or disciplinary action.

Ticket Management

Ticket Submission

Users must provide clear and accurate details when creating tickets to ensure proper assistance and resolution.

Ticket Assignment

The system may automatically or manually assign tickets to ICT personnel based on availability, workload, or responsibility.

Ticket Status

Users can monitor ticket progress through statuses such as:

- Pending
- Ongoing
- Resolved
- Closed

Administrators may update or modify ticket records when necessary for operational purposes.

Roles and PermissionsICT Head

Data and System Availability

While efforts are made to maintain continuous system availability, the administration does not guarantee uninterrupted access due to:

- Maintenance activities
- Technical failures
- Internet connectivity issues
- Security incidents

The administration may temporarily suspend access for maintenance or security purposes.

Intellectual Property

All system components including design, features, database structure, logos, and documentation are the property of the ICT Helpdesk Management System developers and administrators unless otherwise stated.

Users may not copy, modify, distribute, or misuse system content without authorization.

Limitation of Liability

The system administrators and developers shall not be held liable for:

- Loss of data caused by technical issues
- Unauthorized account access caused by user negligence
- Delays in ticket resolution
- Temporary service interruptions

Users acknowledge that the system is provided to support operational processes and may have technical limitations.

Suspension and Termination

Accounts may be suspended or terminated if users:

- Violate these Terms of Service
- Engage in unauthorized or malicious activities

- Abuse system privileges
- Provide false information during registration

Administrators reserve the right to investigate suspicious activities and take appropriate action.

Changes to the Terms

These Terms of Service may be updated at any time to improve system operations, security, or compliance with organizational policies.

Continued use of the system after updates indicates acceptance of the revised terms.

Contact Information

For concerns, technical issues, or questions regarding these Terms of Service, users may contact the ICT Helpdesk System Administration through official communication channels.

Agreement

By using the ICT Helpdesk Management System, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to follow these Terms of Service.
